Working Time Directive

The above course is classified as 'work related training' and will therefore should be included within your drivers working time directive hours.

Documents

Please ensure each candidate attending the Driver CPC course provides a photocard driving license and driver qualification card if applicable. Failure to produce these documents may lead you to being unable to sit the course. Please send Sigma candidates driving licenses and DQC card (if applicable) prior to the booking to check if you are eligible to sit the course.

Getting to Sigma

A map is provided for your convenience. Please arrive in good time for your course.

Signing In

Upon arrival you are required to sign in. If you have an apple phone or an app that scans QR codes, you can sign in by simply scanning the QR code and entering your name and registration. If you are an Android user with no QR scanner you can manually enter your details on the iPad at the reception desk.

Additional Support

With full confidentiality call us on 01375 671111 in advance if you have any particular learning requirements, specifically if you are attending an ADR course.

Catering Facilities

A vending machine is available at Sigma. However, you will need to bring your own lunch if you wish for something more substantial.

There is a BP service station with an M&S Simply Food and a Wild Bean Café. There is a McDonalds on the opposite side of the A13; please be aware that there is no walkway, and you can only access by car.

COVID-19

Throughout our premises we operate hygienic practices and adhere to the current COVID-19 legislation. You may be asked to provide a self-test result, prior to attending a class. We can provide Rapid Covid-19 (Antigen) Self-Test test kits if required. Please note self-test kits may be chargeable in line with current government guidelines.

Should you wish to continue to wear a face covering throughout your time at Sigma Studies then please feel free.
